COOKIE POLICY

Last Updated: 17/01/2023

This website uses cookies.

Cookies are small text files that can be used by websites to make a user's experience more efficient.

We use cookies to personalise content and ads, to analyse our traffic etc. We also may share information about your use of our site with our social media, advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you've provided to them or that they've collected from your use of their services.

Cookies allow website to know if your computer or device has visited it before. Cookies can then be used to deliver products, services, and ads, help us understand how the website is being used, help us remember your preferences, and generally improve your experience in using our website. Cookies can also help ensure marketing you see online is more relevant to you and your interests.

The length of time a cookie will stay on your computer or mobile device depends on whether it is a "persistent" or "session" cookie. Session cookies will only stay on your device until you close your browser. Persistent cookies stay on your computer or mobile device until they expire or are deleted.

The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this site. For all other types of cookies we need your permission. This means that cookies which are categorized as necessary, are processed based on GDPR Art. 6 (1) (f). All other cookies, meaning those from the categories preferences and marketing, are processed based on GDPR Art. 6 (1) (a) GDPR.

This site uses different types of cookies. Some cookies are placed by third party services that appear on our pages.

Your browser or device may offer settings that allow you to choose whether browser cookies are set, and to delete them. These controls vary by browser, and manufacturers may change both the settings they make available and how they work at any time. You may find additional information about the controls offered by popular browsers at the links below. Certain parts of our website may not work properly if you have disabled browser cookie use.
